

Final ICHC 2013 PROGRAMME version 11th June 2013

Saturday 29th June (Meetings at the National Library, Yliopistonkatu 1, Helsinki)

10:00 Meeting of the International Society of Curators of Early Map (ISCEM) (open meeting, everybody interested is welcome to participate)

(Chair: Henrik Dupont)

More detailed programme will be available separately at www.ichc2013.fi

12:00 – 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 Meeting of the ICA Commission on History of Cartography (open meeting, everybody interested is welcome to attend)

(Chair: Elri Liebenberg)

Important 19th and early 20th century maps of the Baltic Area

- Liudmila Zinchuk: Three items from the 19th century Russian maps of the Baltic Area
- Benedicte Gamborg Briså: Looking north, not east
- Jan Strang: Whereabouts of Secret and Less Secret 19th Century Russian Military Maps of the Baltic Sea, Finland and the Baltic States
- Anda Juta Zalite: Milestones in the mapping of Latvia, 1800-1900
- Markus Heinz: Overview of the cartographic holdings on the Baltic Region in the Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin – Preiischer Kulturbesitz

More detailed programme is available separately at www.ichc2013.fi

Sunday 30th June (Meetings at the Conference venue, Marina Congress Centre, Katajanokanlaituri 6, Helsinki)

8.30–16.30 Registration

9:00-11:00 Annual General Meeting of the International Society for the History of the Map (for ISHM members)

11.00–12.15 Opening session

- Musical Interlude by Kaija and Timo Nuoranne & group: Welcome!
- Welcome addresses:
Dr Antti Jakobsson, Chair of the ICHC 2013 organizing committee
Mr Tony Campbell, Chairman of the Imago Mundi Ltd
- Keynote speaker Professor Paul D.A. Harvey: "The 25th ICHC"
- Musical Interlude by Kaija, Timo and Maaria Nuoranne: "Finland from North to South"
- Announcement: Professor Matthew Edney, President and Chairman American Friends of the J. B. Harley
- Video performance by Kardemimmit Kantele and Antti Jakobsson Mobile phone

12.15–13.30 Lunch break (Note: This lunch break is 15 minutes shorter than the others!)

13.30–14.45 Session 1: Coastal maps and charts

(Chair: Alexey Postnikov)

- Mikko Huhtamies: Coastal maps and charts of the 18th century Finnish Gulf: navigation, archipelago warfare and maritime infrastructure
- Josip Faričić & Lena Mirošević & Damir Magaš: Carta di cabottaggio del Mare Adriatico (1822–1824) as a turning point in the development of Adriatic maritime cartography
- Júnia Ferreira Furtado: The island that arose from the sea: Jean Baptiste Bourguignon D'Anville, the Portuguese Açores islands and the Vulcans

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Session 2: Urban mapping

(Chair: Nick Millea)

- Nils Ahlberg: Town planning and urban mapping in the Swedish-Finnish kingdom in early modern times
- Lucia Nuti: The financing of an urban map: from a private to a public enterprise
- Paul D. A. Harvey: Local maps on medieval seals

18.00 -> Exhibition "The emerging world – map treasures from the A. E. Nordenskiöld collection" and reception at the National Museum of Finland (Mannerheimintie 34, Helsinki)

Monday 1st July

8.45–16.30 Registration

9.00–10.15 Session 3: Map use

(Chair: Carme Montaner)

- Pilar Chias Navarro & Tomás Abad: Early 14th-century Spanish cartography: maps and views of Spanish Mediterranean towns and fortresses in the Middle Ages
- Zsolt G. Török: Secret but printed: 16th-century fortification atlases and the first Venetian city atlases
- Sen-Hao Yang: Mapping feng-shui and imaginary cartography: maps used for burial land disputes in northern Taiwan (1878–1895)

10.15–10.45 Coffee break

10.45–12.00 Session 4: Marketing, distribution and use of maps

(Chair: Catherine Hofmann)

- Catherine Tatiana Dunlop: The woman who mapped the French Republic: Augustine Fouillée's cartographic 'Tour de France'
- Ariel Tishby: Xiélùsāléng – A Chinese map of Jerusalem "at the time of the incarnation of the Lord of Heaven" 1887
- Göran Bäärnhielm: Types of topographic representation in 17th-century German news cartography

12.00–13.30 Lunch break

13.30–14.45 Session 5: National mapping and national atlases

(Chair: Petra Svatek)

- Olof Karsvall: The Swedish land survey of hamlets and farms in the 17th century
- Ivan Kordiš: Peter Kozler, Zemljovid slovenske dežele in pokrajin ('The map of the Slovenian land and regions')
- Gilles Stéphane Palsky: The 1899 Atlas de Finlande: a model in questions

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Session 6: Maps for travel, traffic, and communication networks

(Chair: Tony Campbell)

- Katariina Kosonen: Mapping the nation for Finns and foreign visitors: maps of the Finnish Tourist Association and Finland-Travel, 1888–1938
- James Akerman: American travellers' map use and annotation in the 19th century
- Elri Liebenberg: Thomas Baines' exploratory cartography of the 19th-century Southern Africa

18.00–19.30 Imago Mundi Prize and The City of Helsinki reception at the Helsinki City Hall
(Pohjoisesplanadi 11-13)

Tuesday 2nd July

9.00–12.00 Poster session

Theme: Urban mapping and land surveying

- Regine Gerhardt: Daniel Frese: A Renaissance cartographer to be discovered
- Joost Depuydt: Puzzling 16th-century manuscript city maps of Antwerp (re)discovered
- Carme Montaner & Luis Urteaga: Making visible the new industrial and commercial cities: advertising maps in Spain in the 1880's
- Elien Vernackx & Bram Vannieuwenhuyze: Marcus Gheeraerts' Information System for Bruges (MAGIS Brugge): a dynamic knowledge platform for the history of Bruges

Theme: National mapping and national atlases

- Nataliya Vinogradova & Galina Korzunina: Soviet Agitprop maps 1920s–1930s
- Dariusz Brykala, Tomasz Strzyzewski, Lukasz Sarnowski & Anna Jániczak: Spatial coverage and contents of the Charles Perthées' special maps of Polish voivodeships from the end of the 18th century
- Manoel Fernandes de Sousa Neto & João Carlos Garcia: Portuguese and Brazilian maps at the Centennial Exhibition – Philadelphia, 1876
- David Ramirez Palacios: Vergara y Velasco's woodcut Map and Atlas of Colombia (1906–1910)

Theme: Thematic mapping, map symbols and representation

- Catherine Akeroyd: Mapping and concealing the unknown: visual strategies used to cover the Southern Continent
- Ante Blaće: North-eastern Adriatic forts in Vincenzo Maria Coronelli's isolario Mari, golfi, isole, spiagge, porti, citta...
- Alexei Sobisevich: The map of Olonets uyezd (1728) made by Akim Kleshnin as the source of social and economic information
- Madlena Cavelti & Hans-Uli Feldmann: Glacier representation on maps of the Alpine Countries

Theme: Map collecting and prominent collections

- Paola Sereno, Paola Pressenda & Maria Luisa Sturani: Books and maps' collecting for the king: cartography in the building of the House of Savoy's Library and Wunderkammer (16th–18th centuries)
- Liudmila Zinchuk: Collections of the 18th-century Russian maps in the Russian State Library

Theme: Mapping coastal areas, seas, oceans and inland waters

- Henrik Dupont: Mapping East Greenland
- Lucyna Szaniawska: Comparing the sea and ocean areas displayed in Ptolemy's Geographia in editions of Nicolaus Germanus (ca 1467) and of Gerard Mercator (1578)
- Ewa Szykiewicz & Anna Osowska: Unknown old portolan chart of Europe

- Edwin Okhuizen: Abraham Maas: a mysterious Dutch cartographer in St Petersburg and his forgotten MS charts of the Gulf of Finland (1725–1734)
- Concepción Camarero-Bullón, María-Jesús Vidal-Domínguez & Amparo Ferrer-Rodríguez: Water in the non-technical cartography of Spanish dry areas in the 18th century

Theme: World maps and atlases

- Alexander Vasiljevich Podossinov: Newly-found Byzantine world map of the 15th century
- Frederik Muller: Two manuscript tabulae modernae, designed for the 1525 Ptolemy
- Patricia Seed: Mercator's projection compared: a study of four originals
- Gilsun Oh: Redrawing of KunyuWanguoQuantu (Complete geographical map of all the kingdoms of the world) by using computer

Theme: Mapping Asia

- David Forrest & Alastair Pearson: 1:1 million scale mapping of India and the International Map of the World
- Chuan-Hui Mau: Mapping the south-western region of China
- Vera Dorofeeva-Lichtmann: Trees as cartographic symbols: from Fangmatan wooden maps (3rd century BC) through to maps of the Chinese Empire from the Song dynasty (960–1279) onwards
- Koji Hasegawa: Nostalgia in maps

12.00–13.30 Lunch break

- ICHC 2013 briefing for the media

13.30–14.45 Session 7: Map use and production 1

(Chair: Peter Barber)

- Rosa Orlandini: Ethnicity cartography during World War II: Wilfried Krallert and the Volkstumskarte
- Mario Cams: The China maps of Jean-Baptiste Bourguignon d'Anville: provenance and production contexts
- Monique Pelletier: Maps for Louis XIV, War King

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Session 8: Maps from the Nordenskiöld collection (Special session)

(Chair: Antti Jakobsson)

- Martti Blåfield (invited speaker): Certain ideas of Adolf Erik Nordenskiöld seen through the eyes of the twenty-first century
- Marjo T. Nurminen: La Sfera – Cosmographia hybrid manuscript – a rare treasure of a book in the Nordenskiöld collection
- Chet Van Duzer: The cartographer's apprentices: Battista Agnese and a manuscript nautical chart in the Nordenskiöld collection

17.30 -> Exhibition of maps and reception at the National Archives of Finland (Rauhankatu 17, Helsinki)

Wednesday 3rd July

9.00–10.15 Session 9: Symbols, signs and other elements of representation codes in East Asian maps (Special session)

(Chair: Vera Dorofeeva-Lichtmann)

- Ekaterina Simonova-Gudzenko: Sino-Korean atlases: representation of Japan
- Fan Lin: Mutually constitutive practices: cartography, geomancy diagram making and landscaping during the Song dynasty (960–1279)
- Martin Hofmann: The depiction of unfeasible river courses on ancient Chinese maps

10.15–10.45 Coffee break

10.45–12.00 Session 10: Theoretical and conceptual approaches to the histories of mapmaking

(Chair: Francis Herbert)

- Sebastián Díaz Ángel: From 'Aurea Regio' to 'Guldene Castillien' (Golden Castille): golden myths, hydrographic secrecy and the Iberian-Netherlands tensions in the first printed maps of present-day Colombia, Panama and Venezuela (1584–1630)
- Jean-Marc Besse: Earth, Wind and Fire: allegorical cartouches in 17th and 18th century cartography
- Matthew H. Edney: The Transatlantic circulation of geographical maps before 1763

12.00–13.30 Lunch break

- Rainer Kalnbach: Mein lieber Freund und Kupferstecher – a movie about copper engraving (24 minutes, starting at 13.00)

13.30–14.45 Session 11: Thematic mapping, map symbols and representation

(Chair: James Akerman)

- Gillian Hutchinson: The best of all possible charts? International sea chart standardization in the mid-20th century
- Petra Svatek: Civil aviation cartography in Austria 1908–1938
- Mark Monmonier: Meteorologists as both makers and consumers of maps: contentious notions of progress and accuracy in twentieth-century cartography

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Session 12: Military Mapping

(Chair: Göran Bäärnhielm)

- Erkki-Sakari Harju: Swedish military mapping in Finland 1776–1805
- Maria Gussarson Wijk: The Swedish Field Survey Corps and the Finnish war 1808–1809
- Andreas Christoph: The Topographisch-militärische Charte von Teutschland: curse or success of Friedrich Justin Bertuch's 'Geographical Institute'?

17.30-> Meeting of the directors of Imago Mundi Ltd / Free evening

Thursday 4th July

9.00–10.15 Session 13: Grids, coordinates, and projections

(Chair: Peter van der Krogt)

- Marina Rajaković, Ivka Kljajić & Miljenko Lapaine: Map projection and accuracy of one Mercator's map
- Ruth Watson: Humanist visions of a new world order: heart-shaped maps of the sixteenth century
- Joaquim Alves Gaspar: 'Juan de la Cosa la hizo en año de 1500': revisiting the old nautical planisphere with a new quantitative approach

10.15–10.45 Coffee break

10.45–12.00 Session 14: Borders

(Chair: Carla Lois)

- Kimmo Katajala: Borders and states on the early modern maps
- Michael Richard Handley Jones & Venke Åsheim Olsen: The cartographical and historical background for the demarcation of the Norwegian–Russian boundary in 1826
- Madalina Valeria Veres: Mapping eastern and western Habsburg borders in the second half of the eighteenth century

12.00–13.30 Lunch break

- 12:45 – 13:15 The History of Cartography Project briefing

13.30–14.45 Session 15: Key themes in the history of nineteenth-century cartography (Special session)

(Chair: Roger Kain)

- Imre Josef Demhart: Absurd mistakes and blunders: the relevance of boundary making and surveying for the cartography of colonial Africa
- Peter Collier: The impact of developments in printing on topographic mapping in the 19th century
- Carla Lois: Map consumption and circulation in the nineteenth century

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Session 16: World maps and atlases

(Chair: Edward Dahl)

- Stefan Schröder: 'Transitional' or 'transcultural' maps? Latin mapmakers and Arabic knowledge in the first half of the 14th century
- Peter Nekola: Rethinking the geographical atlas after 1919
- Alastair William Pearson: The Commission on the International Map of the World, 1949–52

16.30–16.45 Short break

16.45–18.00 Panel discussion: Themes in the history of cartography

Panel leaders: Matthew Edney and Mary Pedley

19.00-> Exhibition of maps and reception at the John Nurminen Foundation (Pasilankatu 2, Helsinki)

Friday 5th July

9.00–10.15 Session 17: Land surveying and land survey maps 1

(Chair: Matthew Edney)

- Martijn Storms: University land: landed property of Leiden University in maps and archives
- Benjamin James Sacks: Surveyors in the socioeconomic planning of the British Empire: Simpson and Byres' global journeys, 1763–1783
- John Louis Cruickshank: Maps "for the needs of the people's economy": the civil topographic mapping of the USSR

10.15–10.45 Coffee break

10.45–12.00 Session 18: Land surveying and land survey maps 2

(Chair: Henrik Dupont)

- Soetkin Vervust: From cartography of conquest to cartographic cooperation: Cassini de Thury's geodetic contribution to the Ferraris maps
- Stig Roar Svenningsen & Andreas Aagaard Christensen: Mapping the nation for war: representations of the landscape in Danish military cartography 1800–2000
- Alexey V. Postnikov: A history of the military topographic map of the Western border region of the Russian Empire on a scale of three versts to one inch (1:126 000)

12.00–13.30 Lunch break

13.30–14.45 Session 19: Map use and production 2

(Chair: Evelyn Edson)

- Leif Isaksen: The Practical Prognosticator: on the use and abuse of Ptolemy's Geography
- Stella Chrysochoou: The rebirth of antiquity in Byzantium: the construction of Ptolemaic maps by thirteenth-century Byzantine scholars without the use of ancient exemplars
- Jan Strang: The Bureus map of 1626 and its early editions: Bureus map and Finland

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.30 Closing session

- Thank you notes:
Dr Antti Jakobsson, Chair of the ICHC 2013 organizing committee
Mr Tony Campbell, Chairman of the Imago Mundi Ltd
- Mr Joost Depuydt, Chair of the ICHC 2015 organizing committee: Next conference in Antwerp 2015 "Theatre of the World in Four Dimensions", 12–17 July, 2015
- Past 25 International Conferences on the History of Cartography through pictures, with musical performance by Kardemimmit

19.00–23.00 Farewell dinner at Suomenlinna (Meeting at the Market Square 18:15 for boat transportation at 18:30 m/s Panda opposite of the Presidential palace, return from Suomenlinna 23:15)